

REWARD OF $5,000 FOR THE ROBBERS

Whole Country Aroused in the Vicinity of Seattle.

BLOODHOUNDS ON TRAIL

EXACT NUMBER OF THE HOLD-UPS UNKNOWN.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 3.—The Great Northern Express company this morning authorized a reward of $5,000 for the capture and identification of the men implicated in the hold-up of No. 2 last night; a proportionate amount for the capture and conviction of one or more men in the party and $500 per man additional for the conviction of each robber.

The Pinkertons have been sent out on the case by the railroad and the entire strength of the road's secret service force on this division has been assigned to the robbery. Sheriff Smith has had a posse in the field since the hold-up was reported and the police here and in Everett are working on the messenger description of the only men who were seen closely enough by the train crew to give any idea of their appearance. One of these was the man of slender build, medium height and slouch hat who climbed into the engine cab and commanded Engineer Calder to stop his train. The second robber was seen by one of the brakemen. He wore a rubber coat and hat and was of medium height.

Two Modes of Escape.

A fisherman living near the scene reported this morning that he had seen four or five men in a small launch speeding south from Ken. Mile post. Officers believed at first that the escape was made by water for the scene of the holdup is close to the bay. The road at the point where the launch beach on one side and a precipitous bank on the other. A heavy growth of timber shades the track. The discovery of a launch at the point, thirteen miles from Seattle on the Lake McLea road this morning, affords a new theory for the escape of at least part of the gang. The launch, with the description of one stolen early Monday morning from Kent, and when found was in a badly spent condition as though driven at a high rate of speed. Farmer Hunt heard a wagon driving by his place at 10:30 o'clock last night and the gates to Farmer McCormick's place near the robbery, were left open. A hitch strap on the horse's neck had been cut.

Small Amounts Secured.

Reports of the money carried in the through safe are incomplete, but the theft will not exceed $1,000. Officers of the express company have been paid for $346 that was entrusted to the safe from the Seattle office. The amounts sent in from coast points and re-shipped here were after him.

Deputy Sheriffs Lively and McKinnon and Railroad Detectives Webb and Ryan are following the trail of the train robbers from Bitter Lake toward the old line of the Seattle and International into the jungle where "Tracy" hid for days, while a small army of deputies were after him.

Four miles from the point where Rancher C. H. Thomas found the robbers had abandoned their wagon, the officers found a group of three men in the sand along Bitter Lake. Earlier in the day they had discovered a watchman employed at a fish wheel along the beach, near the robbery, robbing away from a boat they were attempting to lose.

Shots Exchanged.

Shots were exchanged between the watchman and the robbers, then the latter took to their heels and fled up the hill to a spot on a private road, half a mile from the county highway where the rig had been fastened. The hitch strap was cut and the men drove madly down the road to the point where the rig was abandoned. All along the route detectives found that farmers had been aroused by the sound of the road and that dogs had chased the fugitives.

The overalls, blue coat and "slicker" found in the buggy were the property of R. T. Calhoun, a man from whom the buggy and horse were stolen early Monday morning. These clothes were worn by the robbers during the attack on the train.

Deputy Sheriff Hodge of Ravensdale is coming into Seattle and will start out this morning on the chase. Texan bloodhounds on the chase. The scent will be taken from the clothing found in the buggy. Guards have been shown out to head off the main road and attempt to reach the White river valley and others will join the man-hunt today.

All Day Long on the Hunt.

All day today the sheriff's posse was kept at work in the vicinity of the scene of the holdup. But this afternoon it was called in and tonight a heavy detachment was started for the village of Bothwell, a point on the Vancouver and Inland road, where the robbers are believed to have taken refuge. The posse will be in the morning and will be in the morning and will be in the morning.

Two business men of Ballard late tonight gave to Sheriff Smith a description that may lead to the capture of three of the men implicated in yesterday's attack on the train.

They reported at noon they were stopped on the road near the scene of the holdup, by three men, one of whom was about 30 years old, wearing a heavy black beard, the others smooth faced young men of from 20 to 25 years. They asked the way to the railroad tracks, but after being directed toward their way into the brush, the man with the beard asked about his shoulders a gunny sack. The same sack was found today among the things in the abandoned rig. The three men were seen again last evening by the same Ballard residents. At that time they were sitting on the sand at the scene of the hold-up and the younger man was hurrying toward the brush, when a local train from Everett to Seattle came in sight.

The Great Northern went out a statement today from Everett to the effect that the total loss by last night's robbery was $1,200, but that the passengers' property was not lost.

The Seattle police are keeping a sharp lookout for the highwaymen, and believe they are in the city as the last seen of the robbers which they escaped was about three miles from Ballard, at 3 o'clock this morning. The wagon at this time had no one in it and no horse was running.

LUMBERMAN'S PRAISE

Editor Tells of Pleasant Visit of Chicago Business Men to Salt Lake Last Spring.

Copies of the American Lumberman of Sept. 30, 1905, have arrived in Salt Lake, telling of the entertainment of the Chicago Commercial club delegation on the occasion of their visit here last spring. The article is a three-page feature of the magazine given over to the Chicago business men's sojourn in Salt Lake.

Great praise is given the committee on reception, headed by Governor J. C. Cannon, and a group of prominent citizens, and other officials, and members of the board of governors, Commercial club. There are photos of Governor Cannon, President Heber M. Wells of the Commercial club, and Manager Fisher S. Harris. There is also a large group photograph taken by The Herald artist and used in this paper at the time of the visit.

Personal sketches are given of C. L. Jacobson, Theodore T. Burton, Charles E. Murphy, Theodore H. Nyström, Andrew MacQuinn, "the father of Hood in Utah; George E. Merrill, Harry J. Hayward, W. B. McCartney, E. E. Cripps, G. R. Asper, George F. Pitt, William Asper, Orson D. Romney, William B. Service and Frank C. Parker. The article is written by J. E. Deffenbaugh, editor of the American Lumberman, who was with the Chicago delegation.

CONFESS TO BURGLARY

Robert Bruce and Alma Jones Admit Their Crime.

Robert Bruce and Alma Jones were arrested yesterday by Police Officer William Leaver for burglary. Jones and Bruce entered a cabin a day or two ago on the Salt Lake Gun club's property and stole a shotgun and some provisions.

They were at once suspected of the crime and the matter was reported to the police. Bruce pawned the shotgun for $10 on Commercial street. Yesterday the gun was recovered by the police. After their arrest the pair confessed.

COURT NOTES.

David J. Sharp yesterday filed suit for $1,000 damages against the Utah Consolidated Mining company, alleging that he had been injured by a rock falling from a mine. The suit was filed in the district court.

Minnie Wiechert yesterday filed suit for divorce from John H. Wiechert, alleging that he has failed to provide for her. They were married Sept. 4, 1901. The suit was filed in the district court.

Robert Hildebrand, a salesman of Salt Lake, filed a petition for voluntary bankruptcy yesterday in the federal court. His liabilities amounted to $9,902.50, and his assets were set forth at $459.00.

LIGHT APPLE CROP.

Only a Few Producing States Report Satisfactory Yield.

Washington, Oct. 3.—The weekly crop bulletin of the weather bureau says: An exceptionally large and fine yield of apples is indicated over much of the greater part of the corn belt and only a very small part of the crop in the north central section is estimated to yield from five to ten per cent of the total. The remainder is exposed to injury from frost and this is maturing rapidly.

A light apple crop was reported recently everywhere, only a few apple-producing states indicating satisfactory yields. Owing to the extensive prevalence of blight and rot in the principal potato producing states a light crop of potatoes of inferior quality is generally promised. North Pacific coast dry soil conditions have not been favorable for pining and seeding.

LEAVE EXTENDED.

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 3.—The extension of leave already granted to the three upper classes of midshipmen on account of diphtheria has been extended and according to present orders the naval academy will open on Oct. 11.

A TRIVIAL AFFAIR.

Dublin, Oct. 3.—The alleged gigantic robbery at the residence of John W. Hall, vice chairman of the general prisoners board, is in reality a trivial affair.

STAR CHAMBER

Hyde Willing to Appear as a Witness Under Conditions.

SUITS FILED AGAINST HIM CONSEQUENTLY HE CANNOT TELL ALL HE KNOWS.

New York, Oct. 3.—Samuel Untermyer, counsel for James H. Hyde, today gave out for publication a letter addressed to him by Charles E. Hughes of the insurance investigating committee, in which he says:

"Referring to your request that Mr. Hyde voluntarily appear at a witness before the joint committee appointed by the defunct legislature of 1903 to investigate the affairs of life insurance companies, I have advised Mr. Hyde that four committees are without power of jurisdiction to make the investigation in which you are engaged."

GAMBLER TAKES POISON

Al Hardin, Known as "Diamond Kid," Commits Suicide After Long Period of Drunk.

"Al" Hardin, a crap dealer in the Green Light gambling house, better known among the gambling fraternity as the "Diamond Kid," committed suicide about 1 o'clock yesterday morning by swallowing morphine. Hardin evidently took a dose of the drug just after leaving the gambling house at midnight. At the time he was under the influence of liquor.

Early yesterday morning Hardin met a crowd of his friends, who led him to his room above the Sherwood drug store, on Fifth South and State streets. Soon after he was taken to his room it was discovered that he was suffering from the use of drugs. Physicians were called, but nothing could be done to save the man's life.

Hardin was a physical wreck and for some time had been talking of suicide. At times he was despondent and drank heavily. For the last week or two he had not been working. He was on the verge of a nervous collapse when he took the drug.

Hardin was 35 years of age and had been working in gambling houses for several years. He leaves a wife, who is living in Salt Lake, but had no children. His wife's brother, George Bently, proprietor of the Green Light gambling house.

Justice of the Peace Dana T. Smith examined the body and decided that an inquest was unnecessary. The funeral will be held this afternoon.

ANNUAL CONVENTION.

Daughters of the Confederacy Meet in San Francisco.

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—The annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy assembled today at the Palace hotel.

Bishop William Ford Nichols delivered a prayer, after which the delegates were welcomed in an address by Mrs. Selden S. Wilson, president of the California division of the association.

Augustine Smythe, president of the United States division of the Confederacy, was escorted to the platform by members of Albert Sidney Johnston chapter of San Francisco.

Mr. Albert C. Vossler, president of the local division, spoke a few words of welcome and introduced Mrs. Montgomery, president of the California division, who in turn addressed the delegates.

The response was made by Mrs. Augustine Smythe.

A roll call of officers and a report of the proceedings of the various chapters, followed by a presentation of a portrait of Mrs. Goodell, founder of the order, terminated this morning's session.

HEAVY OPERATIONS.

Enormous Balances in New York Clearing House Banks.

New York, Oct. 3.—Balances of the clearing house banks today were greatly in excess of any previous record, amounting to $2,231,900, as against $2,953,793 on Saturday last, which was the previous record.

The debit balance of the National Bank of Commerce today amounted to $2,761,000, which is a new high record for any individual institution, either on the debit or credit side. The National City bank reported a credit of $10,445,000, which about represents the amount deposited there by the city yesterday in tax payments.

The large figures of the last few days are a further reflection of recent financial operations. These include heavy October disbursements for interest on government bonds, and for Pennsylvania and the Atchison syndicate undertakings, other operations not yet disclosed.

The banking community is still at a loss for last week's illogical bank statement. A careful analysis of the statement made today showed that a large amount of the entire surplus reserve was held by one bank.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Richard Clarkson.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 3.—Richard Clarkson, pension agent for Iowa and Nebraska, and for thirty years manager of the Iowa State Register, died today in this city. He was one of the best known men in the state, and with his brother, J. S. Clarkson, collector of the port of New York, was actively engaged in Iowa journalism for forty years.

Justice James Madison Barker.

Boston, Oct. 3.—Justice James Madison Barker of the supreme judicial court of Massachusetts died today of a heart failure at the Union club in this city. He was a resident of Pittsfield.

Jose Maria De Heredia.

Paris, Oct. 3.—Jose Maria De Heredia, the poet and member of the French academy, is dead.

CHARGED WITH BEING A FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 3.—Martin Von Schlosser, a member of the firm of Hoelscher & Company, wine merchants in San Francisco, who was arrested Sunday night on the charge of being a fugitive from justice from Detroit, where he is said to be wanted in connection with the forgery of a $5,000 check, today refused to go back east and face the charge. He employed a German to fight extradition. Von Schlosser claims to be a German baron. Von Schlosser has failed to give $4,000 bonds.

Send to the publisher, George Daniels, East 42d street, New York, for a sample copy and particulars.

GENERAL GOMEZ SAID TO BE UPON A SECRET MISSION TO THIS COUNTRY

A candidate in the field in December to contest the election of President Palma, the candidate of the moderate party. The national convention of the party, which was held on Sunday last, refused to accept his resignation, but he had not been so informed, as he said before the convention met.

General Gomez is accompanied by O. Ferrera, a lawyer of Havana. It was learned about the ship that both Cuban and Americans whose business interests are in Cuba entertain some anxiety over the outcome of the political discussion. Mr. Ferrera, while almost as reluctant as General Gomez, said that all the jails in Santa Clara province were filled with political prisoners.

One of the largest cigar manufacturers in this city and Cuba said that it was the well-founded belief of all the passengers, after the gossip on the trip, and even before the steamer sailed from Havana, that General Gomez was on a secret mission and that he would call upon President Roosevelt before he returned to Cuba.

GENERAL PAPER STRAIGHT TALK COMPANY CASE ON DEMOCRACY

Books and Papers Must Be Submitted For Inspection. Former Senator Cockrell the Principal Speaker at Reunion.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 3.—Judge VanDevanter, in the United States district court late this afternoon, decided that the officers of the Hennessey Paper company, the Itasca Paper company and the Northwest Paper company should appear before the United States examiner and answer such questions as might be asked of them in the hearing of the case of the United States against the General Paper company and twenty-three other defendants. The court also decided that the books and papers mentioned in the subpoena should be produced and be submitted to the government for examination.

Follows Similar Decision.

The decision of today follows that of Judge Seaman in Milwaukee, rendered upon a similar application several weeks ago, and from which decision the defendants have appealed to the United States supreme court. Whether an appeal will be allowed from Judge VanDevanter's decision is not yet certain. Attorney F. B. Kellogg, who has represented the defendants in this case, maintains that an appeal would not lie, because today's decision is an interlocutory decree and not final, as was the case in the decision rendered by Judge Seaman. The court appointed Saturday, Oct. 7, as the date for hearing arguments on this point.

No Criminal Prosecution.

Judge VanDevanter, in rendering his decision, maintained that the statute under which the case at bar was brought, complied with the immunity clause of the constitution and that the testimony given by the officers could not be used in their criminal prosecution, either in the federal or state courts. As to the prohibition against character for honesty and uprightness, that was something that the constitution did not take notice of. The harm resulting to the witness in this case, the court stated, would not be in the sense of taking his property from him; it would not be a forfeiture, but rather a depreciation following the discovery that he was engaged in an unlawful business.

Wrong to Be Righted.

This suit was stated to be one brought to put an end to a wrong, which if of the character charged, is a public wrong and has been so from its inception. A person or corporation does not acquire a property right, the court stated, by concealing a wrong or by putting it into execution, or by continuing the wrong. This rather aggravates it than makes it right, and when the government tries to stop it by an injunction, the defendant is put to a forfeiture because it takes nothing to which the defendants are lawfully entitled.

Immunity of Corporations.

As to whether the corporation itself would be immune from criminal prosecution on evidence given by its officers, the court held that the corporation was not in issue. He was inclined to think, however, that if a corporation was in fact a "person" in the sense in which the section of the constitution cited contemplated, then perhaps it would be immune. If a corporation, that is to say, could itself testify, such testimony could not be used against it in criminal proceedings.

As to the contention that the officers of the corporation could not be compelled to testify against the objection of the corporation itself, Judge VanDevanter held that as an individual could not forbid an agent to testify against him, neither could a corporation so instruct its officers.

ACTION OF COALITION LEADERS IS APPROVED

Budapest, Hungary, Oct. 3.—A resolution endorsing the action of the coalition leaders after their audience with the king-emperor at Vienna Sept. 23, has been adopted by a committee of the coalition members of the Hungarian parliament, and will be submitted to a plenary conference of all the opposition party. The resolution declares that the coalitionists cannot undertake to form a cabinet on the conditions laid down by the crown, and protests emphatically against any violation of the settlement of 1867 being made dependent on the Austrian view and against doing being cast on Hungary's economic independence.

The resolution deprecates the constant prorogations of parliament and demands that the king-emperor's memorandum on the subject should be discussed in parliament so that it may be ascertained who is responsible for the dissolution.

IMPERIAL BANK WILL RAISE RATES

Action Necessary for Protection of Germany's Stock of Gold.

OUTGO HAS BEEN HEAVY PRESSURE THE GREATEST EVER EXPERIENCED.

Berlin, Oct. 3.—The return of the Imperial Bank of Germany issued today breaks all previous records by far. The outgo proves to have been much heavier than the highest anticipations of the market and the deterioration of the status amounts to not less than $25,750,000. Herr Koch, president of the bank, today in proposing an advance in the rate of discount from 4 to 5 per cent informed the central committee that the pressure at the end of the quarter was the greatest ever experienced. The liabilities, he said, had been increasing with only slight interruptions since the middle of the year, and the outlay in discounts and advances on treasury bills now reached $416,750,000, which was the highest in the history of the institution and $53,000,000 above 1904. The metal stock was the smallest since the end of September, 1900, while the bank's reserves and notes have now reached $220,000,000, the highest ever known. The metallic covering notes had sunk to 4½ per cent, but the rates of exchange would not permit the exportation of gold.

Advance Is Necessary.

Conditions at other money centers, President Koch said, suggested a cautious advance of the rate by a full 1 per cent, which was necessary for the protection of the gold stock. President Koch pointed out that owing to the unprecedented pressure on the bank yesterday the first weekly return for October would not show much improvement, since the liquidation of bills would be counterbalanced by the withdrawals of deposits therefor, and that the next return before marking up the rate. The recent action of the Bank of England in increasing its rate was also referred to as a reason for proposed advance, which the committee agreed to.

Reciprocity Was Endorsed By Founders of the Party.

Warrensburg, Mo., Oct. 3.—Former United States Senator Francis M. Cockrell was the principal speaker at the Democratic legislative reunion held here tonight. Governor Joseph W. Folk, United States Senator W. W. Stone, ex-Governor Alexander M. Dockery and Congressman Champ Clark also addressed the meeting, which was attended by most of the prominent Democrats of the state.

Mr. Cockrell's Address.

Senator Cockrell said in part: "Absolutely honest and unrestricted trade with foreign nations has never been advocated by any political party in the United States. It is a mystic shrine, whose altars are regarded as inviolable as long as restrictions on commerce are maintained by other nations. Foreign commercial nations are today imposing restrictions of highly protective duties of the Dingley tariff law and will continue them as long as our tariff is higher than theirs. It has been publicly proclaimed by leading men in the party in power that some at least of those high duties were imposed by the law with a view to reciprocity. Because our opponents in power advocate or proclaim the application of Democratic principles and policies in the administration of our government, is no reason or cause why Democrats should oppose or abandon them."

Reciprocity Democratic.

"Reciprocity as a means of securing justice to our citizens and our products in foreign countries, was first practiced by the founders of our party as a wise and just policy. It may often be the only available means of securing a much needed reduction of highly protective duties of the Dingley tariff law and will continue them as long as our tariff is higher than theirs. It has been publicly proclaimed by leading men in the party in power that some at least of those high duties were imposed by the law with a view to reciprocity. Because our opponents in power advocate or proclaim the application of Democratic principles and policies in the administration of our government, is no reason or cause why Democrats should oppose or abandon them."

Freight Rates and Trusts.

Senator Cockrell said that the freight rate question was a living issue, that would remain so until justly settled. Congress, he said, alone could settle it.

Of trusts, he said: "That wrongful and oppressive trusts and monopolies exist cannot be truthfully denied. There is no one specific or panacea which can right their wrong and remove the cause of oppression. Nearly every one of such trusts or monopolies enjoy or derive some right, privilege or advantage by virtue of some law, national or state."

By the exercise of constitutional powers of congress and the states in the enactment of appropriate laws to break the monopoly of the trusts, the wrongs and oppressions can be righted and removed."

SCHEME TO PRESERVE IDAHO STATE BUILDING

(Special To The Herald.)

Boise, Ida., Oct. 3.—A movement is on foot here for the removal of Idaho's building from Portland to Boise. The plan involves the removal of the present magnificent building and exhibit at Portland intact in the new location. The project is in the hands of the Lewis and Clark exposition, which has been received at the war department by the state commission, the exhibits being shipped to Boise and stored until the completion of the new state capital.
